

2008 Conference T-shirt Design Contest

Get involved in spreading the message that water education is important. Have your students use their creativity to design a t-shirt that will teach others about the importance of water. The winning artwork will be used on the 2008 Summer Water Conference t-shirt that will be given FREE to those who register.

- All entries must be original, unpublished pieces. Original works of art should be created using colored pencils, markers, crayons, or watercolors. Artists are encouraged to create works of art that are colorful, fun and educational.
- Entries should be no larger than 8x11 (standard sheet of typing paper) drawn vertically.
- Judging will be based on the clarity of the message and creativity.
- The t-shirt design should reflect the theme:

“Water: A Living Lesson”

Please also note:

1. An official entry form must be attached to the artwork. For a valid entry, the student and the legal guardian must both sign the entry form.
2. All artwork submitted as part of this contest becomes the property of the Water: A Living Lesson planning committee and will not be returned.
3. Copyrighted characters will not be accepted.
4. Failure to follow all directions will result in disqualification of an entry.
5. Contest entries must be received at the Edwards Aquifer Authority office by Friday, January 11, 2008 in order to qualify for the contest.
6. The conference planning committee will contact the winner in mid-January.

The winning artist will receive:

- Their artwork featured on the 2008 Water: A Living Lesson conference t-shirt given free to all registrants. * Minor alterations to the artwork may be necessary for the final product.
